CALLED BY NAME

PULPIT ANNOUCEMENT FOR CALLED BY NAME SUNDAY OCTOBER 21-22

Please read aloud at all Masses

Feel free to include these instructions in the homily as well

Today is Called By Name Sunday, the day when Bishopn Kihneman is inviting everyone in the diocese to submit names of faithful young people who could have a vocation to priesthood or religious life.

Is there someone you know who may be called? Help us to encourage them by sharing their name and contact information. There are two ways to do so: by mail or online.

To share their information by mail, fill out the form using the envelope in your pews. Tear off the top and save it as a prayer card. Then drop the envelope in the mail.

Alternatively, If your parish would like to mail all of these envelopes together, please give appropriate instructions here (such as drop in the collection basket).

To submit names online, use the QR code on the envelope that points to biloxivocations.org. It's quick and easy to submit names via this online form.

Candidates you submit should be between 14-49 years old and single. Those whose names are provided will receive a communication from Bishop Kihneman and the Vocations Office with encouragement and resources to hear and respond to God's call for their life - no matter what their vocation is.

Thank you for your generous participation in Called By Name Sunday. Please pray for all in our diocese who are called!
